Community Involvement and Enrichment ■ Inspiring Artists and Audiences ■ Nurturing Collaboration and Creativity

These days have certainly been long and trying for everyone and we hope that this finds you and your family safe and well. Though we have been separated to help protect the health and well-being of our communities, we at Richmond Community Theatre are looking forward to welcoming our patrons back for new productions and memories.

At RCT, we are constantly updating policies and procedures to keep up in the age of COVID-19. We are closely monitoring the local and global climate to plan our 2020-2021 season accordingly. We are making sure that as we re-engage our audiences, we are researching the safest operating procedures, including CDC and state-mandated guidelines, to protect our patrons, performers and volunteers. Richmond Community Theatre Board of Directors will be creating an Emergency Preparedness Committee to help better determine and institute those procedures needed in this ever changing environment.

As we creep ever closer to our new normal, we will keep our supporters informed and if you should have any concerns, comments or questions, you may reach out to us at any time.

Sincerely,

Richard Elliott
President
